ACTIVITIES AT THE YOUTH FACILITIES, WHAT IS THIS?

- Information on youth facilities of Youth
Department, City of Jyväskylä

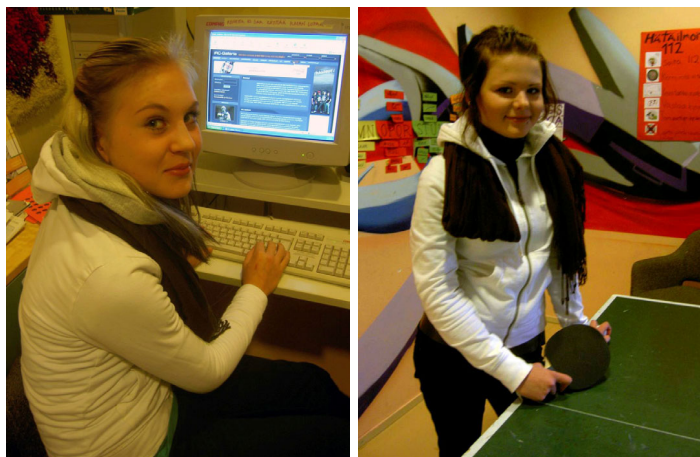

What are the activities at the youth facilities?

The activities at the youth facilities are offering a secure alternative for youth recreation and they are not affected by religious or political matters. Activities are primarily offered free of charge. City of Jyväskylä has youth facilities at four different locations. As a bought service, there are also activities at Jyväskylä Street Mission registered association's youth centre called Café Center where activities differs slightly compared to other youth facilities.

Who are the activities aimed at and when are they held?

13-18-year-old young people can use the youth facilities, but there are also some activities and clubs for younger children at some of the centres. The youth facilities at Huhtasuo, Keltinmäki, Kuokkala and Säynätsalo are open several evenings a week. Café Center is open every evening of the week. About once a month, usually on a Friday night, the centres organise evening cafes and during that time the youth facilities are open a little later. Different kinds of clubs are also organised at the youth facilities.

Who are working at the youth facilities?

Trained staff is working at the centres. Supervisors are always present when the centres are open. The supervisors are trustworthy adults. Parents are welcome to visit the youth facilities and also to get in touch with the facilities on any other matter they wish to discuss.

Do the youth facilities have rules and regulations?

Each centre has their rules and regulations that must be followed. Alcohol or other narcotic substances are not allowed to be used at the youth facilities. Also, people must not tease others there.

What do people do at the youth facilities?

People can spend time with their friends and supervisors at the youth facilities. People can play different games at the youth facilities or even do their homework there. Centres also have a television. There is a computer and internet at each centre. In addition, baking session, field trips and other activities are organised at the youth facilities.

The young people have the chance to affect the activities organised at the centres. The supervisors are listening to the wishes of young people and they are helping in organising them. The supervisors and the young people hold meetings together where the young people can tell what they would like to see happening at the centre.
